

To stabilise in the meaning of the word “Holi” means to become equal to the Father.

Today, BapDada is seeing His children everywhere who are the holiest, highest and richest in the world. No matter whether the children are personally in front of Him or are sitting far away and are close in their hearts, BapDada is happy to see the children everywhere. Every child becomes the holiest to such an extent that no pure mahatma (pure, great soul) has ever become that or could become that throughout the entire cycle. From time to time, religious souls and great souls have remained pure, but there is a difference between their purity and your purity. You become pure at this time and you receive the attainment and reward of the purity of this time in your many future births: your bodies, minds, wealth, relations, connections and you, the souls, all remain pure. You souls and your bodies both become pure. You souls attain such purity. By becoming pure in your thoughts, words and deeds, you attain such a great reward. So you are such holiest souls. Do you consider yourselves to be such holiest souls? Have you become such souls or are you still becoming this? Is it easy to become this or a little difficult? However, you did become like this in the previous cycle and you now have to become like this again. Is this firm within you or is it that you will make do even if it is not that firm for you? No; even in your dreams impurity has to finish. You have the faith, do you not, that today, you are becoming this and that you will have become this tomorrow? So, you are the holiest and the highest.

The children of the highest-on-high Father are the highest on high. It is when you become the highest that you are worshipped. None of the highest souls of today, none of the kings that used to exist, but no longer exist, no President or Prime Minister, ever becomes worthy of being worshipped. They become worshippers and bow down in front of you souls who are becoming worthy of being worshipped and worship you. At this time, you become the masters of the world, and in the future you become the kings of kings. So, you attain the highest status. As well as this, you are also the richest in the world. Your title is “multi-multimillionaires”. Your treasures are such that the millionaires and billionaires of today even with their millions and billions, are not able to attain such treasures. The fortune of you elevated souls is being created by the Father in such a way that you experience and even speak of having multimillions with every step you take. Are there multimillions in your every step or is it a one hundred-fold or a thousand-fold? Not even the greatest millionaire can earn such an income! How much time does it take to take a step? When you take a step, how long does it take time? A second! OK, it may take two seconds. Even if you say it takes two seconds to take a step, you earn multimillions in every two seconds! So, how many multimillions would that be at the end of a whole day? Just calculate this! Are there any such millionaires who are able to earn such an income in one day? Would there be anyone like that? So, you are the richest in the world, are you not? And your treasures are such that no fire can burn them, no water can flood them, no thieves can steal them and no rulers can snatch them away from you. It is only at this most auspicious confluence age that you are able to attain such treasures. Do you have such self respect in your awareness? Yes or no? Those who are sitting at the back are waving their hands! All of you at the back are sitting comfortably, are you not? You are the richest in the world and so you have nothing but comfort! Even at the greatest universities, students do not sit on couches to study. However, you are the beggars who are becoming princes. You are beggars as well as princes. To renounce everything means to become a beggar, and to have all attainments means to become a prince. Without renouncing something, you cannot receive such a huge fortune. You have received your fortune through your renunciation. You have renounced your bodies, minds, money and relations, that is, you have transformed them all. Instead of saying, “The body is mine”, you say, “The body is Yours”. By changing just the one word “mine” to “Yours”, in terms of your body, mind, money and relations, by renouncing the consciousness of “mine” in this way, you claim your right to such a fortune through this renunciation! So, what is this renunciation compared to the fortune you receive? It’s only a small thing or is this a big thing? It sometimes feels like something big. To say, “Yours”, means to make a big thing small, and to say “mine”, means to make a small thing big. No matter what happens, even if you have a problem a hundred times bigger than the Himalayas, when you say, “Yours”, it means you make a mountain into cotton wool - not even a mustard seed, but cotton wool within a second. Do not just say, “Yours”. Even more, don’t just accept it as “Yours”, but also act accordingly! It is easy to transform everything through transforming just one word, is it not? You experience nothing but benefit; there can be no loss in this. By saying, “Yours”, you give all of your burdens to the Father. You say to Baba: “You know that everything is Yours; I am just an instrument”. So there is benefit in this, is there not?

You became detached and you became loved. You are loved by God, and those who are loved by God are loved by everyone in the world. You don't just have attainment in the future, but you also have the attainment of the present time. You have already experienced this in a second; you can even try it for a second and see. When anything happens, simply say, "Yours!" Accept it, and act accordingly and see whether your burden becomes light or not. You have experienced this, have you not? All of you sitting here are experienced, are you not? What happens is that because you have had the habit of saying, "mine, mine" over a period of 63 births, you start off saying, "Yours, Yours", but you then begin to say, "mine"; and when you say, "mine", everything stops. Although that situation might last for an hour or two hours, or even a day, by your changing "Yours" into "mine", the fruit of that lasts much longer. The situation may have lasted for just half-an-hour, but, whether in the form of repentance or in the form of trying to change the situation, you continue to remember that situation again and again. Therefore, the Father says to all the children: If you have love for the word, "mine", if you have this habit or this sanskar, and feel compelled to say it, then say, "My Baba". Many are compelled by their habits. Whenever you have the feeling of the consciousness of "mine", then say, "My Baba", and put an end to it there and then. Merge all the different types of "mine" into "My Baba".

The people from Russia have dolls with many other dolls inside; each one inside the next. In the same way, you have to merge all the different types of "mine" into "My Baba" and put an end to them all. Are you able to do this? You do this, but you sometimes also go into the expansion of "mine". At the moment, this only happens sometimes. However, it is numberwise in your changing "mine" into "Yours" for all time. There are those who are Al, those who are number one, and then those who have a number after that. You have come to celebrate Holi, haven't you? Therefore, remember this mantra: I have now become the Father's. I now belong to Baba. I have now become part of the Godly family, that is, I now belong here. So, did you celebrate Holi in this way? What are you going to do now? Is there still something that you have to burn or have you already burnt everything? You are not saying "yes" to this: are you still thinking about it?

Whatever festivals people celebrate on the path of devotion are just memorials, but there is some significance in their creation. First, you have to burn everything and then you celebrate. It isn't that you celebrate first and then burn something. First incinerate away the impurity, weaknesses and defects and then celebrate. So, all of you burnt everything a long time ago, or is a small part of the scarves around your necks still to be burnt? Or, do the Pandavas still have a small part of their bush shirts to burn? Or is it part of the costume they are wearing that still has to be burnt? A little piece of saree isn't still waiting to be burnt, is it? In fact, you can only the experience of the power and supersensuous joy of this spiritual and physical celebration when you have first burnt everything. To celebrate as entertainment is a different matter. For that, the confluence age is the age of experiencing pleasure. This is why people celebrate it as entertainment and you can also do that; you can celebrate in this way a great deal. However, to be coloured by God's colour means to become equal to the Father. This is what it means to be coloured by the colour. The Father is bodiless and avyakt, and so to experience the bodiless stage and the avyakt angelic stage is to be coloured by His colour. Perform actions, but do so as an avyakt angel. Experience the bodiless stage when you want. Your mind and intellect should be controlled by you in this way. When you order yourself to become bodiless, you should be able to become that as soon as you give that order. You become an angel. You should be able to stabilise your mind within a second in any stage you want. Don't think that it didn't take a long time, that it only took five seconds or that it only took two seconds. You were unable to fulfil the order, so your mind did not remain under your control. No matter what the situation may be, even if there is some sort of fluctuation, you have to become stable amidst any fluctuation. Do you have such controlling power? Or, is it that, whilst you are thinking about becoming bodiless, time passes by and you just think about it? The Father continues to see how many children keep changing their poses. They think: I want to become bodiless. Then, they think: To become bodiless means to stabilise in the form of the soul. Then, they think: Yes, I am a soul; I am not a body, I am a soul. I came as a soul, I have to become a soul." So, did you become bodiless whilst thinking this? Or, did you just battle to become bodiless? You ordered your mind to become bodiless in a second; you did not tell your mind to think about what it means to become bodiless or when or how you can become bodiless. So your mind didn't obey your order! Therefore, you do not have the power to control, do you? According to the time, you need to practise. If you don't have the power to control, many situations could cause you upheaval. Therefore, even if you just remember the one word “Holi” that is enough. Holi means “the past is the past”, and Holi means “I now belong to the Father”. What else have you become? Holi means you have become a pure soul. Remember the one word “Holi” and use it with its three meanings. Do not just speak about it, because Holi means that the past is the past. Yes, the past is the past. Do not keep thinking or talking about what has passed. No; stabilise in the meaning of it. Become that as soon as you think about it. It shouldn’t be that when you think about it, you remain lost in just thinking about it; no. As soon as you think about it, become that. Stabilise yourself in that.

An honouring ceremony for the double foreigners who have been in knowledge for 10 years or more was celebrated:

All of you who celebrated ceremony in this way, did you not? Did you celebrate Holi? BapDada is very happy to see every unique and lovely scene. The whole family is also happy to see such scenes. Did you see your photo very clearly? Did you like it? Did you just see your face or did you also see the stage of your mind? You saw your face in this mirror and that was very good. You did very well. However, did you also see your stage in the mirror of knowledge? It is good. BapDada does not see whether you have been continuing on this path for 10 years or 15 years, but that you have remained eternal and immortal whilst continuing for so long. Baba is happy to see this. You have performed great wonders. You changed the culture, country, customs and systems and sanskars that you had of double foreigners and became residents of Bharat. What would you call yourselves now? Are you residents of Madhuban or residents of America or London? Where are you from? Are you from Madhuban? (We are residents of Madhuban.) Do you not remember America or Russia? Madhuban is your permanent address whereas America, Russia, Africa, Australia, Japan and everywhere else are all your service stations. Your permanent residential address is Madhuban; you have taken different names and forms and adopted different languages and different cultures just for service. Otherwise, if you hadn’t taken birth there, how many languages would the sisters from Bharat have had to learn? How many languages would they have to learn? So, all of you went there for service. BapDada has seen that double foreigners are very keen to open centres. As soon as they have a flat, they open a centre. That too is good! That is why there are so many centres in so many countries.

BapDada is giving many, many, many congratulations to the double foreigners for their zeal and enthusiasm. You have spread service very well in a short time. So, you are fast! How many years has it been since service began in the foreign lands? How many years has it been since service began in London? (In 1998, it was 27 years). It has been 62 years in Bharat and 27 years abroad. So BapDada is happy to see how much service has expanded. Now, only one type of service remains. BapDada would not let you be just like that! It isn’t that service has already finished. No; there is still more to be done!

BapDada is signalling all the double foreigners about your future service. You now have to serve the media to a greater extent. The newspapers from abroad will serve Bharat. This has now started to happen a little due to one reason or another. However, just as when establishment started, the news of that was published abroad in the newspapers, so now too, let such things be mentioned in the papers abroad that the eyes of the people of Bharat open. Things have started to be written in the newspapers of Bharat, but it is the newspapers abroad that will awaken Bharat. Just as you have mentioned the Brahma Kumaris on the website on the computer, so your name should now also be mentioned on the world radio. Anyone who wants to get information about the Brahma Kumaris can do so from their computer. You have put very good information on it, but no one knows about it. The people of Bharat would be able to take benefit, but it hasn’t as yet been advertised. You have created a good invention. Double foreigners are able to receive benefit very well through these material facilities. Everyone in Bharat listens to the BBC News. So, there should be something mentioned in that news. Then see how much the sound of you will spread everywhere. Now perform this wonder! Now introduce yourselves in this way. Your name appears on local TV and radio all the time, but the sound of your name should now spread in such a way that even those who have never heard of you before will come to hear about you. You do something new every year. You make plans for something new. You also hold many meetings. Do a lot more like that! When you children maintain courage, the Father helps. Someone just has to become the instrument for this. Because it is fixed in the drama for every task to happen, someone or other becomes an instrument for that; someone becomes an instrument at the right time. So, someone has to become the instrument for this task too. Achcha.

To the holiest souls in all directions, to the highest souls who remain constantly stable in the highest stage, to the richest souls who are full of all treasures, to those who accumulate multimillions with their every step, to the elevated souls who are to become equal to the Father, to the souls who are the masters, the children of the Ocean of Forgiveness, and so have mercy and forgive everyone, to the souls who give all the unhappy souls of the world a drop of peace and happiness by giving them a powerful current of light and might, to the deep intense effort-makers who constantly keep their account of accumulation full at every moment, BapDada's love, remembrance and namaste.

Blessing: May you be a master comforter of hearts and give comfort to each one's heart by being an image that grants blessings, the same as the Father.

Children who are images that grant blessings, the same as the Father, never see anyone's weaknesses and are merciful towards everyone. Just as the Father doesn't keep anyone's weakness in His heart, similarly, children who are images that grant blessings never allow anyone's weaknesses to enter their hearts. They are master comforters of hearts who give comfort to each one's heart and this is why, whether someone is a companion or a subject, they all sing praise of one such as this. Blessings emerge from within each one that that one is always loving and co-operative with them.

Slogan: At the confluence age, elevated souls are those who are always carefree emperors.
