

Essence: Sweet children, you have come to the Father to have your dormant fortune awakened. To have your fortune awakened means to become a master of the world.

Question: Which nourishment makes you children as wise as the Father?

Answer: This study is nourishment for the intellects of you children. The intellects of those who study this study every day, that is, those who take this nourishment every day, become divine. The Father, the Lord of Divinity, who is the Intellect of the Wise, makes the intellects of you children wise and divine, similar to His.

Song: I have come having awakened my fortune.

Om shanti. On hearing this line of that song, you sweetest children should have goose pimples of happiness. It is a common song, but no one else understands the essence of it. Only the Father comes and tells you the meaning of the songs and the scriptures etc. You sweetest children understand that, in the iron age, everyone's fortune is dormant. In the golden age, everyone's fortune is awakened. Only the one Father awakens your dormant fortune, gives you shrimat and creates your fortune. He alone sits here and awakens the fortune of you children. As soon as children are born, their fortune awakens. After a child is born, he becomes aware that he is an heir. It is exactly the same here but this is an unlimited aspect. You children know that your fortune awakens every cycle and that it then becomes dormant. When you become pure, your fortune awakens. It is said: There is the pure household ashram. The word "ashram" is a pure word. There is the pure household ashram and, in contrast to that, there is the impure household religion. You wouldn't say "ashram" of something impure. The household religion belongs to everyone. It also exists among the animals; all of them create children. Even animals are said to belong to the household religion. You children now know that you belonged to the pure household ashram in the golden age; you were deities. Their praise is sung: Full of all virtues, 16 celestial degrees full. You used to sing this yourselves. You now understand that you are once again changing from human beings into deities. It is sung that it didn't take God long to change humans into deities. Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar are called deities. They say: "Salutations to the deity Brahma", and then they say, "Salutations to the Supreme Soul Shiva." You now understand the meaning of this. They simply say this out of blind faith. They even say, "Salutations to the deity Shankar." For Shiva, they say, "Salutations to the Supreme Soul Shiva", and so there is a difference. That one is a deity and this One is the Supreme Soul. You cannot say that Shiva and Shankar are one and the same. You know that you truly did have stone intellects and that you are now becoming those with divine intellects. Deities cannot be called those with stone intellects. According to the drama, you had to come down the ladder into Ravan's kingdom. Now, from those with stone intellects you have to become those with divine intellects. The one Father is the wisest of all. Your intellects now have no power at all. The Father sits here and makes the intellects of such ones divine. You come here to make your intellects divine. There are temples to the Lord of Divinity. They also have gatherings (melas) there. However, no one knows who the Lord of Divinity is. In fact, it is only the one Father who makes everyone divine. He is the Intellect of the Wise. This knowledge is nourishment for the intellects of you children. The intellect is transformed so much. This world is called a forest of thorns. How much sorrow they give one another! This is the tamopradhan world of extreme hell. Many fearsome stories have been written in the Garuda Purana. The intellects of you children are now receiving nourishment. The unlimited Father is giving you nourishment. This is a study. This can also be called the nectar of knowledge. There is no water etc. Nowadays, they call everything nectar. They even say that the water of the Ganges is nectar. They wash the feet of the deities with that water and keep it, calling it nectar. This is also something to be understood with your intellect. Is that handful of water nectar or is the water of the Purifier Ganges nectar? The one who gives that handful of water doesn't say that it will make the impure pure. They say of the water of the Ganges that it is the Purifier. They say that when a person dies, he should have the water of the Ganges on his lips. They show that Arjuna shot an arrow and then gave nectar (the nectar emerged where the arrow struck). You children have not shot any arrows. There is a village where they fight with bows and arrows. The king of that place is said to be an incarnation of God. However, no one can be an incarnation of God. In fact, there is only one true Satguru who is the Bestower of Salvation for all and He will now take all souls back with Him. No one, apart from the Father, can take you back home. There is no question of merging with element of brahm. This play is predestined; the world cycle continues to turn eternally. You now understand how the world history and geography repeat. No one else understands this. Human beings, that is, souls, don't know their Father, the Creator, whom they remember and of whom they say, "O God, the Father!" They would never say "God, the Father" to a physical father. They use the term "God, the Father"

with a lot of respect. It is to Him that they sing: O Purifier, Remover of Sorrow and Bestower of Happiness!" On the one hand, they say that He is the Remover of Sorrow and the Bestower of Happiness and on the other hand, when they experience sorrow or their child dies, they say that God gives happiness and sorrow, and that God has taken away their child! What has He done? They sing praise of God but then, when something happens, they begin to insult Him. They say that God gave them that child. Therefore, if He has taken that child back, why should they cry? He has just gone to God. No one cries in the golden age. The Father explains: There is no need to cry. The soul has to go and play another part according to his karmic accounts. Because people don't have knowledge, they cry so much, it is as though they have gone mad. Here, the Father explains: Even if your mother dies, you have to eat halva. You have to be a destroyer of attachment. Mine is the one unlimited Father and none other! You children should have such a stage. You have heard the story of the king who conquered attachment, have you not? All of those are tall stories. There is no question of sorrow in the golden age. There is never untimely death there. You children understand that you are conquering death. The Father is called the Great Death. The Death of all Deaths is enabling you to conquer death. This means you will never experience untimely death. Souls cannot experience death. A soul sheds his body and takes another. That is called experiencing death. Death isn't anything else. People continue to sing praise, but they don't understand anything. They sing songs of praise, but they don't understand the meaning of those songs. Everything is now beyond the understanding of human beings. The Father explains: These five vices have made your intellects so bad! So many people go to Badrinath etc. Today, 2 lakhs or 4 lakhs people go. Even big officers go on a pilgrimage there. You don't go there and so they say that the Brahma Kumaris have become atheists because they don't perform devotion. You then tell them that those who don't know God are atheists. No one knows the Father and this why this is called a world of orphans; they continue to fight and quarrel among themselves so much. This whole world is Baba's home, is it not? The Father comes to purify the children of the whole world. For half the cycle, there truly was the pure world. They even sing: As is King Rama, so are the subjects of Rama. As Rama is wealthy, so too are his subjects. How could there be anything irreligious there? They even say that the lion and the lamb drink water together there. So, where could Ravan etc. come from? They don't understand anything. When people abroad hear those things they are amused. You children know that the Father, the Ocean of Knowledge, has come and that he is now giving you knowledge. This world is impure. Would He purify the impure through inspiration? People call out: O Purifier, come! Come and purify us! Therefore, He must surely have come in Bharat. Even today, He tells us: I, the Ocean of Knowledge, have come. You children know that only Shiv Baba has all the knowledge. That Father sits here and explains all of these things to you children. In the scriptures, all are tall stories. They mention the name of God Vyas. They say that he wrote the scriptures. That Vyas belonged to the path of devotion. This One is Vyas Dev and you, His children, are Sukh Deva (bestowers of happiness). You are now becoming deities (bestowers) of happiness. You are receiving your inheritance of happiness from Vyas, Shiva, the Teacher (Shivacharya). You are the children of Vyas. So that people don't become confused, you are called the children of Shiva. His real name is Shiva. The Father now says: Since Shiv Baba is personally sitting in front of you, stop looking at bodily beings. The soul can be realised and the Supreme Soul can also be realised. He is the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, Shiva. He comes and shows you the path to become pure from impure. He says: I am the Father of you souls. A soul can be realised, it cannot be seen. The Father asks: Have you realised that you are a soul? An imperishable part is recorded in such a tiny soul just like a record. You know that you souls adopt bodies. At first you were soul conscious and then you became body conscious. You know that you souls take 84 births. There is no end to this. Some people ask when this drama began. However, this drama is eternal; it is never destroyed. This is called the predestined, imperishable world drama. The Father sits here and explains to you children, just as uneducated children are taught. The soul resides in the body. This is food for stone intellects. The intellect receives understanding. Baba has had pictures made for you children. It is very easy. This is the Trimurti: Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar. Why is Brahma called Trimurti? They say, "Deity, Deity, Great Deity". They place one above the other, but they don't understand the meaning of that. How can Brahma be a deity? Prajapita Brahma has to exist here. These things are not mentioned in the scriptures. The Father says: I enter this body and explain to you through him. I make this one belong to Me. I come in the last of his many births. This one also renounces the five vices. Those who adopt renunciation are called yogis and rishis. You have now become Raj Rishis. You have renounced the five vices and this is why your name is changed. You become Raja Yogis. You make a promise. Those sannyasis renounce their homes and families and go away. Here, husband and wife live together and promise that they will never indulge in vice. The main thing is vice. You children know that Shiv Baba is the Creator. He creates the new world. He is the Seed, the Truth, the Living Being, the Ocean of Bliss and the Ocean of Knowledge. Only the Father knows how establishment, destruction and sustenance take place; human beings don't know this. They very quickly say: You Brahma Kumaris will bring about destruction of the world. Achcha, may you have a rose in your mouth! (May what you say come true). They say that you are instruments to bring about destruction, that you don't believe in the scriptures, in devotion or in gurus and that you just listen to your Dada. However, the Father, Himself, says: This is an impure body and I have entered him. There cannot be anyone pure in the impure world. People simply repeat the things they have heard from others. It was through such rumours that Bharat has become so degraded! It is then that the Father comes, tells you the truth and grants salvation to everyone. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Claim your inheritance of happiness from the Father and become a deity (bestower) of happiness. Give happiness to everyone. In order to become a Raj Rishi, renounce all the vices.
2. This study is real nourishment. In order to attain salvation, stop listening to rumours and follow shrimat! Listen to only the one Father! Become a conqueror of attachment!

Blessing: May you pass with honours by having the fortune of being constantly close to the Father by staying away from the influence of bad company. If you like being close to the Father, then remain constantly distant from the influence of bad company. Many attractions will come to you in the form of test papers, but do not be attracted to them. There are many types of influence of company: waste thoughts, the company of thoughts of the attractions of Maya, the company of relatives, the company of words, the company of the influence of food, the company of actions. Only those who save themselves from all of those influences pass with honours.

Slogan: Become an angel and the Father, Himself, will become a canopy of protection for you in any adverse situation.

* * * O M S H A N T I * * *
