

Essence: Sweet children, at the confluence age, you receive new and unique knowledge. You know that all of us souls are actors. No one's part can be the same as another's.

Question: What method have you spiritual warriors been given in order to conquer Maya?

Answer: O spiritual warriors, constantly continue to follow shrimat! Become soul conscious and remember the Father! Wake up every morning and practise staying in remembrance and you will gain victory over Maya. You will be saved from any wrong type of thinking. The sweet method of remembrance will make you into conquerors of Maya.

Song: What can storms do to those whose companion is God?

Om shanti. This song was composed by human beings. No one understands the meaning of it at all. Devotees sing songs of praise and devotional songs, but they don't understand anything at all. They sing a lot of praise. You children don't have to praise anyone. Children never praise their father. A Father knows that they are his children and the children know that He is our Baba. Now, this is an unlimited aspect. Nevertheless, everyone remembers the unlimited Father; even now, they continue to remember Him. They say to God: Oh Baba! His name is Shiv Baba. Just as we are souls, so Shiv Baba is also a soul. He is the Supreme Soul and He is called the Supreme; we are His children. He is also called the Supreme Soul. Where is His residence? In the supreme abode. All souls reside there. Souls are actors. You know that all actors in a play are numberwise; each one receives a salary according to his part. All the souls that reside there are actors. However, each one has received a numberwise part. The spiritual Father sits here and explains how spirits have their imperishable parts recorded in them. No two souls can have the same part; not everyone has the same strength. You know that the best parts are of those who come into the rosary of Rudra, of Shiva, first. Very good actors in a play are praised a great deal. People go there just to see them. Here, this is an unlimited drama. The one Father is at the top of this unlimited drama. You could even say that He is the highest-on-high Actor, Creator and Director. All other actors and directors etc. are limited. They have all received their small parts. It is the soul that plays a part. However, because of body consciousness, they say that such is the part of that person. The Father says: The whole part is in the soul. You have to become soul conscious. The Father has explained that everyone in the golden age is soul conscious. They don't know the Father. Here, in the iron age, neither are they soul conscious nor do they know the Father. You are now becoming soul conscious and you also know the Father. You Brahmins are receiving unique knowledge. You know about the soul and how all souls are actors. Everyone has received his own part; no two souls can have the same part. It is a soul that has the whole part recorded in him. In fact, it is a soul that takes on a part in a play. It is a soul that takes a good part. A soul says, "I am a governor", or, "I am So-and-so". However, they don't become soul conscious. In the golden age, they understand that they are souls and that they have to shed their bodies and take others. No one there knows God. At this time you know everything. You Brahmins are more elevated than the shudras and the deities. Where do so many Brahmins who become this come from? Hundreds of thousands come to the exhibitions, and those who take this knowledge and understand it very well become subjects. Each king has many subjects. You are creating many subjects. Some understand this knowledge from the projectors and exhibitions and become very good. They study everything and also have yoga. They will now continue to emerge. Subjects will emerge, wealthy ones, kings and queens and the poor will all emerge. There are many princes and princesses; princes and princesses have to be created for the golden and silver ages. There won't be just eight or 108 of them. All of them are now being created. You continue to do service. This too is nothing new. Your holding functions is nothing new. You have done this many times. At the confluence age, you only do this business. What else would you do? The Father comes to purify the impure. This is called the history and geography of the world. Everything is numberwise. Everyone says of someone who gives good lectures, that so-and-so gave a very good lecture. Then, when they hear someone else, they say that the first person used to explain very well. Then, if a third one is better than those two, they say, "This one is better than both." You have to make effort in each aspect to go ahead of others. Those who are clever instantly raise their hands to give lectures. All of you are effort-makers. As you move forward you will become mail trains (express train). Mama was a special mail train. You can't know about Baba because both of them are together. You aren't able to tell which one is speaking. You must always consider it to be Shiv Baba who is explaining. Bap and Dada both know but He is the One who knows what is within each one. Externally, He says: This one is very clever. The father is pleased to hear the praise. When someone's child studies well and claims a high status, his father understands that his son will glorify his name. One can understand when such-and-such a child is clever in this spiritual service.

The main thing is to explain the Father's message in a lecture. Baba gave you an example of someone who had five children, but when he was asked how many children he had, he replied that he had two children. The other person said to him: But you have five children! Then he replied: But, I only have two worthy children! It is the same here. There are many children. The Father says: This daughter, Dr. Nirmala, is very good. She explained to her physical father with a lot of love and made him open a centre for her. This is service of Bharat. You are making Bharat into heaven. Ravan has made this Bharat into hell. It wasn't just one Sita in jail, but all of you are Sitas who are in Ravan's jail. They have written many tall stories in the scriptures. This path of devotion is also in the drama. You know that whatever has passed from the golden age will repeat. You become worthy of worship and you become worshippers. The Father says: I have to come and change you from worshippers into those who are worthy of worship. You first become golden aged and then iron aged. In the golden age, it is the kingdom of the sun-dynasty Lakshmi and Narayan. The kingdom of Rama is the moon dynasty. At this time all of you are spiritual warriors. Those who go onto a battlefield are called warriors. You are spiritual warriors whereas others are physical warriors. Their fighting and battling is with physical power. In the beginning, they used to have hand-to-hand fighting; they would fight one another and one of them would gain victory. Now, they have created bombs etc. You are warriors and they too are warriors. You gain victory over Maya by following shrimat. You are spiritual warriors. It is the spirits that do everything through the physical senses of the bodies. The Father comes and teaches spirits: Children, when you remember Me, Maya will not eat you up. Your sins will be absolved and you won't have wrong thoughts. By remembering the Father, there will also be that happiness. This is why the Father tells you to practise this early in the morning: Baba, You are so sweet! It is the soul that says: "Baba!" The Father has given you the recognition: I am your Father. I have come to tell you the knowledge of the beginning, the middle and the end of the world. This is the inverted human world tree. This is the human world of the variety of religions. This is called a variety play. The Father has explained that He is the Seed of this human tree. People remember Me. Some belong to one tree and others to another tree. They continue to emerge, numberwise. This drama is predestined. It is said that so-and-so was sent as the founder of that religion. However, no one is sent from there. All of this repeats according to the drama. Only that One establishes a religion and a kingdom together. No one in the world knows this. It is now the confluence age. The flames of destruction have to emerge. This is the sacrificial fire of the knowledge of Shiv Baba. They have given it the name Rudra. You Brahmins have been created through Prajapita Brahma. You are the highest; all the other generations emerge later. In fact, all are the children of Brahma. Brahma is called the great-great-grandfather. There is the genealogical tree. First comes highest Brahma and then the rest of the genealogical tree grows. People ask how God creates the world. The creation is there. When they become impure, they call out to Him. He comes and makes the unhappy world happy. This is why people call out: O Remover of Sorrow and Bestower of Happiness, come! They have kept the name Haridwar. Haridwar means "Gateway to God". The Ganges flows there. They believe that by bathing in the Ganges they will be able to go through the Gateway to God, but where is the Gateway to God? They refer to Krishna in this. It is Shiv Baba who is God, the Gateway. He is the Remover of Sorrow and the Bestower of Happiness. You first have to go home. You children now know your Father and your home. The throne of the Father is a little higher. In a rosary, there is the flower (tassel) and the dual-bead is beneath that. Then they speak of the rosary of Rudra. The rosary of Rudra then becomes the rosary of Vishnu. Those who become the garland around the neck of Vishnu then rule in the land of Vishnu. There is no rosary of Brahmins because it repeatedly continues to break. The Father explains: Everything is numberwise. Today, you are moving along fine whereas tomorrow, there would be storms and an eclipse and you become slack. The Father says: Some belong to Me, they are amazed at the knowledge they hear, they speak about it, they even go into trance and they become threaded in the rosary. Then, they completely run away and thereby become cremators. Therefore, how could a rosary be created? The Father explains that a rosary of Brahmins cannot be created. The rosary of devotees is separate from the rosary of Rudra. In the rosary of devotees, Meera is the main one of the females and Narad of the males. This is the rosary of Rudra. Only at the confluence age does the Father come to grant liberation and liberation-in-life. You children understand that you were the masters of heaven and that it is now hell. The Father says: Kick hell away and claim the sovereignty of heaven that Ravan snatched away from you. Only the Father comes and explains all of this to you. He knows all the scriptures and pilgrimages. He is the Seed, the Ocean of Knowledge, the Ocean of Peace. Souls say this. The Father explains that Lakshmi and Narayan were the masters of the golden age. What was there before they existed? It must definitely have been the end of the iron age, when there was the confluence age which then became heaven. The Father is called the Creator of Heaven; He is the One who establishes heaven. Lakshmi and Narayan were the masters of heaven. From whom did they receive their inheritance? From the Father, the Creator of Heaven. This is the Father's inheritance. You can ask anyone how Lakshmi and Narayan claimed the kingdom they had in the golden age and no one will be able to tell you. Even this Dada says: I didn't know this. I used to worship them, but I didn't know anything. The Father has now explained: You study Raja Yoga at the confluence age. Raja Yoga is mentioned in the Gita. Raja Yoga is not mentioned anywhere other than in the Gita. The Father says: I make you into the kings of kings. God came and gave you the knowledge to change from an ordinary human into Narayan. The main scripture of Bharat is the Gita. No one knows when the Gita was created. The Father says: I come at the confluence age of the cycle. Those who were given the kingdom lost that kingdom and became tamopradhan and unhappy. It is the kingdom of Ravan. It is the story of the whole of Bharat. Bharat is all-round (it exists all the time). All others come later. The Father says: I tell you the secrets of 84 births. 5000 years ago you were deities. You don't even know about your births. O people of Bharat, the Father comes at the end. If He were to come at the beginning, how could He give you the knowledge of the beginning, the middle and the end? If the world population hadn't grown, how could He explain it? There is no need for knowledge there. It is only now, at the confluence age, that the Father gives you knowledge. He is the Knowledge-full One. He definitely has to come at the end to speak knowledge. What could He tell you at the beginning? These matters have to be understood. God speaks: I teach you Raja Yoga. This is the University of the Pandava Government. It is now the confluence age. They have sat and shown the armies of the Yadavas, Kauravas and Pandavas. The Father explains: The Yadavas and Kauravas have non-loving intellects at the time of destruction. They continue to insult one another. They have no love for the Father. They say that God is in the cats and dogs. The Pandavas, however, have loving intellects. The Companion of the Pandavas is God Himself. Pandavas means spiritual guides. Those are physical guides whereas you are spiritual guides. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Be soul conscious and play a hero part in this unlimited play. Each actor has his own part. Therefore, don't compare your part with that of anyone else.
2. Wake up early in the morning and talk to yourself. Practise being separate from the physical senses. Baba, You are so sweet! You give us the knowledge of the beginning, the middle and the end of the world.

Blessing: May you be a powerful soul with catching power and catch your original sanskars and become an embodiment of them.

The main basis of your effort is catching power. Scientists are able to catch sound a lot in advance. Similarly, you who have the power of silence, have to catch your original deity sanskars. For this, always have the awareness that you were that and that you are becoming that once again. The more you catch those sanskars, the more you will become an embodiment of them. Experience the things of 5000 years ago as though it is only a matter of "yesterday". Make your awareness very elevated and clear, for only then will you become powerful.

Slogan: The breath of Brahmin life is happiness. You may leave your body, but do not let go of your happiness.
