

Essence: Sweet children, the Father, the Conqueror of Hearts, has come to win the hearts of you children. Therefore, become those with clean hearts.

Question: On what main basis is a golden-aged status claimed?

Answer: On purity. The main thing is purity. Explain to those who come to the centre: If you don't become pure, the knowledge will not stay in your intellect. If, while studying yoga, you become impure, everything will be ruined. If someone doesn't remain pure, it doesn't matter if he doesn't come to class; you mustn't be concerned about that. To the extent that someone studies and becomes pure, to that extent he will become wealthy.

Song: At last the day for which we had been waiting has come.

Om shanti. You spiritual children know that that day has now come again. Which day? Only you children know that the original eternal deity religion of heaven is once again being established in Bharat. That is, the kingdom of Lakshmi and Narayan is being established. So, you children should be so happy that the Purifier Father, to whom you have been calling out, has come. He alone is the Liberator and the Guide and the Remover of Sorrow and the Bestower of Happiness. After He had liberated you, how did you become trapped again? No one knows this. It takes so much effort to explain to human beings who have such stone intellects. Look what duty He has been given! "Come and clean the dirty impure clothes!" Only the deities are pure in both soul and body. In the kingdom of Ravan, no one's body can be pure. The bodies are impure. No one knows these things. When a soul is pure he creates an impression to some extent. However, souls have to become impure. The unlimited Father, the Purifier, comes and says: These five vices are devilish. Renounce them! If you don't listen to Me, Dharamraj will harass you. If you don't listen to what the Almighty Authority tells you, Dharamraj will give you very severe punishment. The Father has come to purify you. You know that you were pure deities and that you have now become impure. So, you should instantly let go of that. Body consciousness is a direction of the devil and that too has to be renounced. The number one vice has to be renounced. The day will come when no impure being will be able to sit with the Father in this gathering; no one will be allowed. Remove the dirty impure ones from here! They won't be allowed to enter the gathering of Indra. Then, no matter how much of a millionaire someone may be, or whatever else someone may be, they won't be able to come into the gathering. Everything can be explained to them outside but they won't be allowed to come into the Father's gathering. Now they are allowed to come so that they can be tempted, but not later on. Even now, if Baba hears that someone impure came and sat here, Baba doesn't like it. There are many such ones who come and sit here secretly. Such ones will have to experience a lot of punishment. It is after bathing that people go to the temples and religious places. No one would go there without bathing. That is physical bathing. This is the bathing of knowledge. One has to be pure in this too. Even non-vegetarians are not allowed to come. When the time comes, Baba will become strict. In the world, look how strong the path of devotion is. Those who read a lot of scriptures receive the title of Shastri (degree in the Sanskrit language). What would you do by learning Sanskrit etc.? The Father says: Forget everything! Simply remember the one Father and you will become pure and the masters of the land of Vishnu. When you have understood this very well, you will forget all the scriptures etc. People study to become barristers etc., but this study, which the knowledge-full Supreme Soul comes and teaches you, is the highest of all. People say to Him: O Purifier, come! However, they don't know that they are impure. Baba continues to explain that the golden age is called the kingdom of Rama and the iron age is called the kingdom of Ravan. At this time, all are impure. The pure deity idols are worshipped in the temples and impure people go and bow down in front of them. This proves that those deities are the highest of all in their purity. They are even higher than the sannyasis. Temples are not built to sannyasis. Now that people have gone into tamopradhan devotion they keep pictures of those people. That is called tamopradhan devotion, the worship of human beings and the five elements. When devotion was satopradhan, it was the worship of One. That is called unadulterated devotion. He is the One who made the deities so elevated. Therefore, worship should also be of only One. However, this drama is predestined. Everyone has to go through the stages of satopradhan, sato, rajo and tamo. It is the same here. Some become satopradhan, some become sato, some become rajo and others become tamo. There is first-class cleanliness in the golden age. The body has no value there. The electricity is switched on and it is destroyed. They wouldn't even throw the bones into the river etc. They wouldn't even pick the body up and take it somewhere else. There is no question of any difficulty. As soon as the electricity is switched on, it is finished. Here, people cry over bodies. They continually remember them and also feed brahmin priests. None of these things will exist there. Everything has to be done with the intellect. What will exist there? Just imagine what heaven will be like! This is hell, the land of falsehood. This is why, “Maya is false, the body is false and the world is false” is remembered. The Government says: Stop slaughtering cows! Write to them: This slaughter is much worse. Stop the slaughter of using the sword of lust on one another. Lust is the greatest enemy. It causes sorrow from its beginning, through the middle to the end. Conquer that. Become pure and you will become the masters of the pure world. There, the deities have new blood. It is said that children here have new blood. However, how could there be new blood here? This is old blood. In the golden age, where you receive new bodies, there will be new blood. These bodies are old and the blood is also old. This is why they have to be renounced. You have to become pure. No one, apart from the Father, can purify you. Everyone’s religion is different. They all have to study their own religious scripture. The Gita is the main one in Sanskrit. The Father says: I don’t teach in Sanskrit. I only explain to you in whatever language this Brahma knows. If I were to speak in Sanskrit, how would these children understand? That is not the language of deities. Sometimes, daughters come and speak the language of that place. By learning languages, some earn hundreds of thousands and some earn millions for their livelihood. Here, you are earning so much! You know that you will become emperors and empresses in the golden age. The more you study, the wealthier you will become. There is a difference between the poor and the wealthy. Everything depends on purity. Explain to those who come to the centres: If you don’t remain pure, the knowledge will not stay in your intellect. If, after coming to take knowledge for five to seven days, you become impure, the knowledge will be finished. If, while studying yoga, you become impure, everything will be ruined. If someone is unable to remain pure, it doesn’t matter if he doesn’t come here. You shouldn’t be concerned about that. You have a burden of the sins of many births on your head. How can that be removed without your having remembrance? “Liberation-in-life in a second”, has been remembered. Do whatever the Father says. The whole world calls out, “O Purifier, come! We are impure!” However, no one becomes pure, and no one can therefore return home. Those people consider the brahm element to be God and they remember that. No one has the knowledge of who God is. Neither is brahm God nor can anyone merge into the brahm element. Nevertheless, everyone has to take rebirth because souls are imperishable. They believe that Buddha went back home. However, he would definitely have to sustain whatever he established. Otherwise, who would sustain it? How could he go back home? You don’t say that you will go and sit in liberation for all time. You know that you are establishing your own religion. You will then also sustain it. That was the pure religion and everyone has now become impure. Only those who belong to this religion will come. The sapling is being planted. The sweetest tree is of the deity religion. The task of its establishment is being carried out. All the scriptures etc. that have been created are for the path of devotion. It is the praise of Baba alone that He comes and changes human beings into deities. Therefore, remember very well the Father who makes you become like that. You also know that, according to the drama, the path of devotion has to continue. In fact, the Bestower of Salvation for All is One. Therefore, only the One should be worshipped. Having taken 84 births, the deities who were satopradhan, have become tamopradhan. You now have to become satopradhan again. You cannot become that except by having remembrance of Baba. No one except the Father has the power to make you that. You just have to remember the One. This is unadulterated remembrance. To remember many is adulteration. Each one of you souls knows that Shiva is your Baba. This is why, wherever you look, you see them worshipping Shiva. They even place an image of Shiva in front of the deities. In fact, deities don’t worship anyone. It is remembered: Everyone remembers God at the time of sorrow, but no one in happiness remembers Him. Therefore, how could the deities worship anyone? That is wrong. They should not be shown giving false praise. They (the deities) don’t even know Shiv Baba that they would remember Him. So that picture should be removed. Instead, you should show the image of the worshippers with single crowns. None of the sages or holy men have a crown of light. This is why even Brahmins cannot be shown with a crown of light. Those who pay full attention to knowledge will continue to make these corrections. No one has become free from making mistakes. Mistakes continue to be made. The picture of the Trimurti is so good. This is the Father and this is Dada. Baba says: Remember Me and you will become this. Become soul conscious! The soul says: I don’t have attachment to anyone except the Father. While living here, we remember the land of peace and the land of happiness. The land of sorrow now has to be renounced. However, until our new home is ready, we have to live in the old one. We have to become worthy of going to the new home. When souls become pure, they will go home. It is so easy! The main thing to be understood is who God is and who Dada is. The Father gives the inheritance through this one. Baba says: Children, manmanabhav! Remember Me and you will become pure deities in the golden age. Everyone else stays in the land of liberation at that time. Only the Father takes all souls to the land of peace. It is so easy! You children should have a lot of happiness. Let your hearts be very clean. It is said: When your heart is clean, all your desires are fulfilled. The heart is in the soul. The true Beloved is the Father of all souls. The Father is called the Conqueror of Hearts, the One who wins your heart. He comes to win everyone's heart. He comes and wins everyone's heart at the confluence age. The Supreme Soul is the One who wins the hearts of souls, whereas human beings win the hearts of human beings. In the kingdom of Ravan, they all hurt the feelings of one another. The picture of the Trimurti was also explained to you children in the previous cycle and this is why it has emerged now too. So, it definitely has to be explained. So many pictures have now been created with which one can explain. The picture of the ladder is very good. In spite of that, people don't understand it. O people of Bharat, you are the ones who have taken 84 births. This is now your final birth. We are only speaking good things. Why do you say that you have not taken 84 births? In that case, you won't go to heaven. You would then come again in hell. They don't want to go to heaven. Bharat has to become heaven. This is an account that has to be understood. Maharathis can explain it very well. There has to be enthusiasm for doing service, for making a donation to someone. If someone doesn't have any wealth, he wouldn't think about donating. First of all, ask them: With what desire have you come here? There is no question of having a glimpse (of a guru) here. Claim your unlimited inheritance from the unlimited Father. There are two fathers. Everyone remembers the unlimited Father. Come and understand how you receive an unlimited inheritance from the unlimited Father. Only those who are to understand this will understand it. If that person is someone who is going to claim the kingdom, he will understand instantly. The Father says: While living at home and doing everything, simply remember Baba, for it is only by remembering Him that your sins will be erased. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Never hurt the feelings of one another. Have the enthusiasm to do service. If you have the wealth of knowledge, you must definitely donate it.
2. Make yourself worthy of going to the new home. Make the soul pure with the power of remembrance.

Blessing: May you be constantly happy hearted and sing praise of your fortune and the Bestower of Fortune.

All Brahmin children receive a crown, throne and tilak as a birthright as soon as they take birth. While seeing the sparkling star of this fortune, continue to sing praise of your fortune and the Bestower of Fortune and you will become full of all virtues. Do not sing praise of your weaknesses, continue to sing praise of your fortune, stay beyond any questions and you will receive the blessing of being constantly happy hearted. You will then easily be able to make others happy.

Slogan: To conduct yourself economically and belong to One (Ekname) is the basis of success in Brahmin life.
