

Essence: Sweet children, in order to go into the genealogical tree of the mother and father, follow them fully. Become as sweet as they are and study well.

Question: In order to understand which deep and significant secrets do you need a very good intellect?

Answer: 1. That Brahma and Saraswati are not a father and mother, but that Saraswati is the daughter of Brahma and that she too is a Brahma Kumari. Brahma is your senior mother, but, because he is male, Jagadamba has been called the mother. A very good intellect is needed to understand these deep and significant aspects.

2. The resident of the subtle region, Brahma, cannot be called the Father of People. The Father of People has to exist here. When this corporeal one becomes completely pure, he is visible as a completely avyakt form. There, there is just the 'movie' language and the happy gathering of deities takes place. This too is a deep thing that has to be understood.

Song: Mother, o Mother, you are the bestower of fortune for the world.

Om shanti. You children know that this is a Godly university. Who is teaching you? God. There is just one God, so there should only be one scripture for Him. Just as there is only one founder for a religion, so there has to be only one scripture of theirs. Although many small and big books have been written, there is in fact only one scripture. Therefore, this is the university of God, the Father. In fact, there isn't a university of a father; a university belongs to the Government. This is called the university of the Mother and Father. Which Mother and Father? It would be said: God and goddess. It is sung: You are the Mother and Father. However, surely, the Father would be first. God speaks. God sits here and teaches you. Everywhere else it is human beings who teach human beings. The incorporeal Father sits here and teaches you souls. People cannot understand this unique aspect that easily. No one would say that the incorporeal Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, God, the Father, is teaching them. Here, the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is teaching you. This would not be in anyone's intellect. It is neither in the intellects of those who are studying nor in the intellects of those who are teaching. Here, you know that God, the Father, is teaching us. The Father of all, the highest-on-high Father, is that One. No one else is the Father. He is also the Father of Brahma. It is He who is teaching you. Brahma is not teaching you; the incorporeal Father is teaching you. People know that Brahma and Saraswati are Adam and Eve, but the highest is the incorporeal One. The others are in corporeal forms. You children know that the incorporeal One comes and teaches you. It is God, the Father, who gives you knowledge. He says: You have to study this knowledge while living at home with your family. In fact, no one studies while living at home with their family. Scarcely a few take up a second course. Here, you have full faith that incorporeal God is teaching you. This corporeal Mama and Baba are also studying with Him. These are very deep matters. Until the Father comes and explains, no one is able to understand anything. Although you call that one (Saraswati) Mama, you know that she is the adopted daughter of Brahma. You too are adopted, but you cannot be called Mama. This is a divine family: Mama, Baba, Grandfather, brothers and sisters. You are Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. She is Brahma Kumari Saraswati, but she is also called the World Mother (Jagadamba) because this Brahma is male. Shiv Baba created Mama, too, through this one. However, according to the law, a mother is required, and that is why this one was made an instrument. These are very entertaining matters. A new person would not be able to understand these things. Until someone receives the introduction of the Father and the creation, he would hardly be able to understand it; he still wouldn't be able to explain to anyone. To study the Vedas and scriptures, to study to become a doctor are all studies of human beings. Human beings teach human beings. No one says: I, the soul, am teaching souls. Here, you are taken away from body consciousness and made soul conscious. Body consciousness is the number one vice. No one is soul conscious. You know that the soul and the body are two things. However, they don't know where souls come from or who their Father is. These are new things for the new world. People speak of New Delhi but, that place won't be called Delhi in the new world. There, it is called the land of angels (Paristhan). First of all there has to be the faith that you are children of God. There is the difference of day and night between deity children and devilish children. Those people are degraded whereas you are elevated. It is sung: O Purifier, come! Come and make us elevated. Guru Nanak also said that God washed the dirty clothes. How you become worthy of worship and how you then become worshippers are all secrets to be understood. Only the one Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is ever worthy of worship. He made Lakshmi and Narayan worthy of worship. He also first created the mother and father. He adopted Mama and Baba. He purifies the impure. He comes to make the impure world pure. This is why the image of Brahma has been shown at the top of the tree. He is also doing tapasya down below. He adopts impure ones. The names of Brahma, Saraswati and the children are changed. You know that Brahma Kumars and Kumaris are studying Raja Yoga in order to become deities. You are Godly children, that is, the Godly genealogical tree. This genealogical tree emerged from the one Seed. That is the genealogical tree of souls whereas this is the genealogical tree of human beings. The rosary of Rudra is also the genealogical tree of souls. So, what is the genealogical tree of human beings? Deities, warriors, merchants and shudras. This is the knowledge of the Creator and creation which only you children listen to. However, because you imbibe it, numberwise, kings, queens and subjects are all created. Effort should be made to follow Mama and Baba and become very sweet. Mama is very sweet and this is why everyone remembers her. It is Shiv Baba who makes this Mama, Baba and you children sweet. This is the genealogical tree of Mama, Baba and the children who study well. They have to become very sweet. Saraswati has been shown with a veena and Krishna has been shown with a murli (flute). They have just changed the names. Baba says: Study well. When students are studying, they have the whole history and geography in their intellects. They are aware of how Mahmud Guznavi came and looted everything and how those of Islam waged war on such-and-such places. Everyone knows the history of those of Islam and the Buddhists who came, but no one knows the unlimited history and geography. Only you children are now studying the knowledge of how the new world becomes old, how the drama begins, how there is the incorporeal world, the subtle region and the corporeal world and then how this world cycle turns. You children are now studying this study. The residence of souls is the incorporeal world. There are Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar in the subtle region. How pure souls become impure and how they then become pure again is all explained to you. The Brahma who resides in the subtle region would not be called the Father of People. The Father of People exists here. You have visions. When this corporeal Brahma becomes pure, the perfect avyakt form will be visible there. It is a subtle form of white light. Communication there takes place in 'movie' form. Only you know what the subtle region is, and who can go there. You see Mama and Baba there. Deities also go there to have a meeting with you. Because deities cannot set foot in the impure world, they meet you in the subtle region. Those are meetings of those of the parents' home and those of the in-laws' home. How else would you Brahmins meet the deities? So, this is the way to meet. To have a vision in front of you is also to recognise with the intellect. This is fixed in the drama. Just as Meera had visions of Paradise and danced while sitting at home, so too you had many visions in the beginning. You were shown how the kingdom functions and what customs and systems there are. At that time there were few of you. All the others will see all of that at the end. People of the world will continue to fight and quarrel among themselves and you will continue to have visions. There will be very many cries of distress among human beings. Some people's wealth will be buried underground... At this time it is the rule of people over people. Even then, their positions are so high. However, because no one's intellect's yoga is connected to the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, they don't recognise Him. Once a kumari is introduced to the person she is going to marry, her love is connected. If there is no recognition, there is no love. Among you too, there is numberwise love. There has to be love for constant remembrance. However, you forget the Beloved. This Baba (Brahma) says: I too forget Him. You children receive these teachings after 5000 years: Consider yourself to be a soul and remember the Supreme Soul. Through this remembrance your sins will be burnt away. You now have to become conquerors of sin. Those who first go into the golden age are said to be conquerors of sin. Those who are impure are said to be those who perform sinful actions, whereas those who are pure are said to be those who perform pure actions. The kingdom of those who are conquerors of sinful actions is in the golden age. Then there is the era of those who perform sinful actions. For 2500 years, it is the era of those who conquered sin and then those same people become those who perform sinful actions. You are now making effort to go into the kingdom of those who conquered sinful actions. There is a long story of the king who conquered attachment. Only you know everything about when the impure kingdom exists and when the pure kingdom exists. Shiv Baba purifies you and there is His image. Ravan makes you impure and there is also his image. You know that it is now truly the kingdom of Ravan. This is why you have to write on the picture of this world cycle: Bharat today, Bharat tomorrow. It has to become that. You know that this is the world of death; there continues to be untimely death here. Death doesn't take place there like it does here for this is why that is called the land of immortality. The kingdom of Rama begins with the golden age. The kingdom of Ravan begins with the copper age. Only you understand all of these things. All human beings are sleeping in the sleep of Kumbhakarna. I explain all the secrets to you children. I explain that you are the mouth-born creation of Brahma. Brahma and Saraswati are included in that. That one is the World Mother. That one is remembered to increase her praise. However, in fact, it is Brahma who is the senior mother, even though he has the body of a male. These are very deep matters. There is definitely a mother of the World Mother. She is the daughter of Brahma. However, where is the mother of Saraswati? Through whom was she created? So this Brahma becomes the senior mother. The sons and daughters are created through him. A very good intellect is needed to understand these things. Kumaris understand very well. Mama is also a kumari. When celibacy is broken, you are unable to imbibe knowledge. The household religion existed in the golden age, but it was pure at that time. Here, it is impure. They have such great praise of Shri Krishna: Full of all virtues, sixteen celestial degrees full... Here, not a single human being can be like that. There, there is no kingdom of Ravan; there is no name or trace of body consciousness. There, they have the knowledge that they will shed their old bodies and take new ones. They remain soul conscious. Here, they are body conscious. You are now taught to consider yourself to be a soul. You have to shed your old body and return home. You will then receive a new body in the new home. Do you understand? Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for Dharna:

1. In order to stay in constant remembrance, connect the love of your heart to the one Father. Never forget your Beloved.
2. In order to go into the kingdom of those who conquered sin, become conquerors of attachment. Perform pure actions. Never perform sinful actions.

Blessing: May you be a generous hearted master bestower and fill everyone with infinite treasures. You children are master bestowers, children of the Bestower. To take something from someone and then to give it to others is not really giving. If you take something and then give it, that becomes a business. As children of the Bestower, become generous-hearted and continue to give. You have infinite treasures, give everyone whatever they want and make them full. Give them happiness, love, peace and just continue to give. This is an open account, not an account of counting. At this time, everything is open in the Bestower's court. Therefore, give everyone as much as they want, do not be miserly in this.

Slogan: Make the attitude of your mind so powerful that even something bad becomes good.
