

16/06/02 Madhuban Avyakt BapDada Om Shanti 31/12/83

If the hand of shrimat is in your hands, you will continue to move with your hand in His hand throughout the whole age.

Today, the Beloved has come to the shores of the ocean, that is, to the shore of Madhuban to celebrate a sweet meeting with His spiritual lovers. All of you have come from so far away to celebrate a meeting. Why? You cannot find such a wonderful Beloved throughout the whole cycle. There is just the one Beloved, but how many lovers? The one Beloved has so many lovers. So, today, Baba has especially come to the gathering of lovers. You celebrate in a gathering; you don't have to say anything. So, today, Baba has not come to speak knowledge to you; He has come to meet you and to celebrate a meeting. The double foreign children have especially come to celebrate today. You have come with the thought of celebrating the New Year. In this New Year, BapDada is also giving you greetings filled with love and co-operation. The confluence age is the new age. The future golden age is the reward of the present new age and new life. For Brahmins, it is now the new age and the elevated age. The new age, the new world, the new days and new nights began for you the moment you became Brahmins. Every moment of this new age and new life is worth multimillions; it is worth diamonds. In the golden age you won't sing the song: This day feels like a new day, this night feels like a new night. This refers to the present time. From the beginning, with which song did BapDada awaken you? Do you remember that song? Awaken o brides, awaken! Why should you awaken? Because the new age has come. This is the song of your childhood, is it not? You have now created new songs. The original song that the Father played was that one, was it not? So when is it the new age? Now! Beside the old, this is new, is it not? Your old world and old life have now changed. You have come into a new life. You were unconscious. Were you aware of who you are? So you were unconscious, were you not? From being unconscious, you became conscious. You experienced a new life, did you not? As soon as you opened your eyes, you saw your new relationship and new world, did you not? So, greetings for the New Age and the New Year, in this new age.

In the world outside too, people say to one another "Happy New Year!" In fact, they are never ever-happy, but they say, "Happy New Year!" Now, not only will all of you say "Happy New Year!" but you will say "Happy New Age!" The whole age is an age of happiness. When you say "Happy New Year", what do you do when you give these greetings? The custom abroad is to first of all shake hands. How does BapDada shake hands with you? They shake hands physically for just a second. However, BapDada shakes hands with you throughout the whole age, that is, He gives you His hand of one shrimat (elevated direction), shakes hands with you and takes you with Him at the end. Do you always have the hand of shrimat with you? This is why you continue to move along with your hand in His hand throughout the whole age. To walk hand-in-hand is also a sign of love and co-operation. Whenever someone walking becomes tired, another person holds his hand and they walk together. The spiritual Beloved never lets go of the hands of the lovers. His promise is that you will have His hand and company till the end. All of you lovers have caught hold of His hand very firmly, have you not? You are not holding it loosely, are you? You are not going to let go of it, are you? Those who let go of it and then hold onto it again, raise your hands! Is there anyone here who sometimes holds it and then sometimes lets go of it? This is their speciality; they are not those who hide anything. They are those who speak honestly and therefore just by speaking about it honestly half the obstacle is removed. However, for how long will you continue with a weak bargain? In the old year, you are going to end all the customs and systems of the past, are you not? Or will the same customs and systems continue in the New Year? Whatever has happened up to now, put a full-stop to that and, from now on, apply the tilak of awareness of constantly holding His hand and keeping His company. On an important day or a day of happiness, they especially apply a tilak as a symbol of happiness, fortune and the symbol of being wed. On the day of a special bhatthi of remembrance, you apply a tilak of awareness, do you not? Why do you apply it? Why do you especially apply a tilak on the day of a bhatthi? You apply a tilak as a symbol of the determination to remain on that day an embodiment of an easy and elevated yogi throughout the whole day. So, today, those who are a little weak, with your determined thoughts, put a tilak of a full-stop and secondly, apply a tilak of your form of power. Do you know how to put a full-stop? Do the Pandavas know how to apply a full stop? Achcha, do the Shaktis know how to apply a full stop? An imperishable full-stop? What did all of you promise this morning? You are going to celebrate a ceremony, are you not? (We are going to have a marriage ceremony.) Are you not already married? Have you not created any children yet? You are already married, but you have come to celebrate the wedding anniversary. Those who are not yet married, raise your hands! No matter how much mischief you get up to, the Beloved is not going to leave you alone because He knows that if He lets go of you where you would go? Nowadays, the custom abroad is that they leave the family and become hippies. So, do you want to be a hippy? Do you want to become ever-happy or a hippy? Look at their condition; you can't even bear to look at them. All of you are sovereigns. This is why BapDada knows that you sometimes become mischievous. However, BapDada has promised you that He will take you with Him and so He cannot break His promise. This is why you have to go with Him. Achcha.

What newness will you bring about in the New Year? You will do something new, will you not? Have you made any plans? Have the instrument teachers made any plans? You will reveal in this land who the God of the Gita is, but what will you do abroad? To put into a practical form the things that are still missing is very good. According to the time, everything is becoming practical. With this aspect, you will beat the drums in Bharat. You will awaken the religious leaders and also create a lot of upheaval. When someone has awakened a little and says "This is very good" and goes back to sleep, then, when they don't get up from sleep again, you pour very cold water on them. So by especially pouring very cold water on the people of Bharat, they will awaken. Achcha. So what newness will you bring about this year? In the world outside, wherever there is an upheaval, you have to hoist at that place the flag of a constantly unshakeable stage of happiness. The Government may be in upheaval, but let the incognito jewels of God constantly keep flying the flag of being complete and unshakeable. The Government's attention should also be drawn to the unique incognito souls in this country who are completely unique and lovely in the whole world. Make those who consider themselves to be poor become overflowing with the imperishable wealth, and give them the experience of being the most overflowing souls who are constantly multimillionaires. Spread such a wave that they forget the sorrow of their poverty. Whoever comes here should feel that they have become overflowing with limitless treasures and experience that there is also another type of wealth. And, with this wealth, physical wealth will automatically come close to you. It doesn't cause you sorrow. Achcha. So, what newness will you bring about abroad in the New Year? Centres continue to open and will continue to be opened. Now, this year, abroad too, there should especially be quality service in a unique way. All of you have a special quality anyway, but now all of you quality souls have to prepare a special group of even more quality souls who can become co-operative in the task of establishment. Now prepare such a group abroad from people all around the world, so that this group can especially become instruments to serve the people of Bharat. The well-known ones who spread the sound is a different group. However, this group is of those who are in relationship, whereas the other group is of those who are only in contact with you. This group has to be of quality and of a closer relationship. You are experienced in the special transformation of life. Therefore, through your experience, enable more heir-quality souls, with even more quality, to continue to emerge. That is the group who are instruments for service and this is the group of heir-quality servers. They should be well-known and also heirs. When such a group is prepared abroad, they should go on a tour of this land. With the power of your experience, inspire all the politicians, religious leaders and souls of all types to want to have the same experience. Therefore, now prepare a group of heir quality serviceable souls who can tour around. Do you understand?

The facilities to spread sound abroad are easy. This is why the sound is spreading abroad and will continue to spread. However, the facilities to spread sound in Bharat are not so easy. You need to do personal (individual) service to awaken the people of Bharat. In that too, it should be service through your very simple experiences. People of Bharat especially will be transformed on hearing the special experiences of transformation. People of Bharat are much more attracted when they hear the experiences of experienced people who have stories of such powerful transformation in their lives. In Bharat they have the system of listening to stories etc. Do you understand?

What do the people abroad have to do? So many teachers have come, so prepare such a group and bring it here. Achcha. BapDada is giving a rosary of blessings as the special gift for the New Year. When a ceremony takes place, you are garlanded. BapDada is giving all you lovers a gift of the rosary of blessings. "May you always remain content and with this contentment make others content. Let every thought be filled with speciality. Let every word and action be filled with speciality. Always remain full of such speciality. Always have an easy nature, easy words and actions filled with easiness. Remain an embodiment of such easiness. Always follow the directions of the One, have all relationships with the One, have all attainments from the One, and have the easy practice of being constant with the One. Always remain happy and distribute the treasures of happiness. Spread waves of happiness over everyone. In the same way, let the smile of happiness sparkle on your face. Always remain cheerful in this way.

Always stay in remembrance and progress. Always keep the rosary of blessings with you. Do you understand? This is the gift for the New Year. Achcha.

To those who constantly have all blessings; to the elevated souls who are immortal with their hand in His hand and are in His company; to those who bring the speciality of newness in every thought in their practical life; to such special souls, immortal love and remembrance for the New Year of the New Age. Love, remembrance and namaste for the flying stage.

Midnight greetings to all the children: To all the loving long-lost and now-found serviceable children, greetings for new zeal and a new life filled with new enthusiasm, and for the New Year. The confluence age is the New Age in which every moment is new. Every thought brings newest zeal and enthusiasm. In such an age, BapDada constantly gives you congratulations for the New Age. Nevertheless, He is giving special love and remembrance on the special day so that you too always make new service plans for yourself and put them into a practical form. Also continue to inspire others with your new life. BapDada received letters of love and remembrance for the New Year from all the residents of London and all those abroad. He also received gifts. In such a New Age, BapDada is especially giving greetings filled with blessings for the New Year to the children who perform elevated actions and who create the New Age. All of you are doing very good service with love and effort. May you always remain busy in service and, through service, enable others to have the right to receive an inheritance from the Father. Achcha.

To all the children in this land and abroad, special good wishes over and over again filled with love and remembrance. Achcha.

Avyakt BapDada meeting the groups:

Do you constantly consider yourselves to be charitable souls? The greatest charity of all is to give the Father's message and make them belong to the Father. You are the charitable souls who perform such elevated actions because a charitable soul at this time becomes a soul worthy of worship for all time. Only a charitable soul becomes worthy of worship. Charity for a short time also enables you to attain fruit. That is for a temporary period whereas this is imperishable charity because you make them belong to the eternal Father. The fruit received for this is imperishable. You become a soul worthy of worship for birth after birth. Therefore, constantly continue to perform charitable actions whilst considering yourselves to be charitable souls. The account of sin has ended. The account of past sins has also ended because whilst performing charity, the balance of charitable actions becomes greater, and the sins will therefore decrease. Continue to perform charitable actions and the balance of charity will increase and that of sins will decrease, that is, it will end. Simply check that every thought is a charitable thought and that every word is a charitable word. There shouldn't be any wasteful words. Sins will not be cut away with waste, and you won't receive the fruit of charity. Therefore, let every action, every word and every thought be of charity. Always remember that you are such elevated charitable souls who constantly perform elevated actions. What is the work of the confluence-aged Brahmin souls? To perform charity, for the more charitable work you do, the more happiness you experience. When you give someone a message whilst simply moving along, that happiness lasts for so long. So charitable actions always increase your treasures of happiness, whereas sinful actions make you lose your happiness. If your happiness vanishes then understand that even if you have not committed a big sin, a small sin definitely has been committed. To become body conscious is also a sin, because when you don't remember the Father, that would definitely be sin, would it not? Therefore, may you be a constantly charitable soul. Achcha.

Blessing: May you be a complete trustee who finishes the false consciousness of "mine" and experiences being full and complete.

If you remain an instrument according to the Father's shrimat, then it is not your family or your centre. Whilst living at home, you are a trustee and even if you are living at a centre, it is the Father's centre, not yours. Therefore, always remember it is the bhandari (treasure-store) of Father Shiva and the bhandara (kitchen) of Father Brahma. By having this awareness you will experience being full and complete. If you have the consciousness of "mine", neither can the bhandari nor the bhandara remain overflowing. If anything is lacking in a task, the reason for that is having the consciousness of "mine" instead of it belonging to the Father, that is, impurity has been mixed into it.

Slogan: In order to become equal to the Father, make your understanding, desires and doing all equal.
