Golden thoughts for the Golden Jubilee

Today, BapDada, the Bestower of Fortune, is seeing all the multimillion times fortunate children everywhere. He is pleased seeing the star of fortune sparkling on the forehead of each child. Throughout the whole cycle, there could not be any father who has so many children who are all fortunate. Although you are fortunate numberwise, compared to the most elevated fortune of the world today, even the last number fortunate child is more extremely elevated. This is why unlimited BapDada is proud of the fortune of all the children. BapDada also continually sings the song: Wah My fortunate children! Wah, My children who always remain lost in the love of One, wah! Today, BapDada has especially come to congratulate all of you children on both your specialities of love and courage.

Each one of you has shown the return of love according to your capacity in service. You have shown the courage in a practical way to reveal the one Father with just the one deep desire. You have completed your own tasks with zeal and enthusiasm. BapDada is pleased with the task and is giving congratulations. BapDada is giving all the children from this land and abroad, those who have personally come here and also those who are sitting far away, who have been co-operative in service with their elevated thoughts from their heart, the blessing "May you always be successful. May you accomplish every task. May you always be a practical example". BapDada heard everyone's promise filled with pure zeal and enthusiasm for self-transformation and for moving even further forward in service. You were told that BapDada has an even more powerful and unique TV than the one you have in your corporeal world. You can only see the acts performed by the body. BapDada can even see the thoughts in your mind. Whatever part each one of you played, BapDada heard and saw everything, including your thoughts, the speed and condition of your mind and the speed and condition of your body. What would He have seen? Today, Baba has come to give congratulations and so He will not say any more. BapDada and all the children, who are service companions, especially applauded a lot because of one thing. They didn't clap with their hands, but clapped in happiness, that the Father will be revealed right now through the service done by the whole gathering. The sound should spread in the world right now. There was this one united thought filled with zeal and enthusiasm in everyone. Whether they were those who gave lectures, those who heard them or those who did physical work, everyone had this very good thought in the form of happiness. This was why there was a very good sparkle of happiness, the enthusiasm to reveal the Father and to bring a wave of happiness in the atmosphere everywhere. The majority took with them the experience of the prasad (holy offering) of happiness and selfless love. Therefore, BapDada was also happy with the love of the children. Do you understand?

You have celebrated the Golden Jubilee, have you not? What will you celebrate in the future? Will you celebrate the Diamond Jubilee here or in your kingdom? Why did you celebrate the Golden Jubilee? You celebrated it to bring about the golden world. What elevated golden thoughts did you have from this Golden Jubilee? You gave many golden thoughts to others. You gave them very good thoughts. What special golden thought did you have for yourself, so that through the whole year, your every thought and every moment will be golden? People simply say, "Golden morning, golden night, or golden evening." However, every second of you most elevated souls should be golden. They should be golden seconds, not just golden morning or golden night. Let there be the golden world and the sweet home of the golden light in both your eyes at every moment. That is the golden light and the other is the golden world. There should be this experience. Do you remember the picture you used to make in the beginning? Liberation in one eye and liberation-in-life in the other eye. To give this experience is the golden thought of the Golden Jubilee. Have all of you had such a thought, or are you just happy to see that scene? The Golden Jubilee is of this elevated task. All of you who are instruments for the task are also companions in the task. You are not those who just observe everything as detached observers, but you are companions. It is the Golden Jubilee of the World University. Even if someone is a one-day-old student, it is also his Golden Jubilee. In fact, you arrived here when the Jubilee was prepared. These people here are the ones who made effort to create it, whereas you arrived here at the time of celebrating it. So, BapDada is giving everyone congratulations for the Golden Jubilee. Do all of you feel this? You are not those who are just observers, are you? Are you those who will become or those who just observe? You have seen a lot in the world. However, here, to see means to become. To hear means to become. So what thought have you had? Every second should be golden. Every thought should be golden. Always continue to shower golden flowers of love and happiness on all souls. Even if someone is an enemy, a shower of love will change an enemy into a friend. Whether others give you regard or not, whether they accept you or not, you should always keep your self-respect and continue to give others soul conscious regard with your loving vision and attitude. Whether they accept you or not, you should continue to consider them to be your sweet brother or sweet sister. Even if they don't accept you, you can accept them, can you not? Let them throw stones, but you give them jewels. You mustn't throw stones in return because you are the children of the Father, who is the Jewel Merchant. You are masters of the mine of jewels. You are multi-multi-multimillionaires. You are not beggars that you think you will only give when the other one gives. That is the sanskar of a beggar. The children of the Bestower never stretch out their hand to receive anything. Even to have such thoughts in your intellect as, "I will only do it if the other one does", "I will give love if the other person gives love", "I will give respect if the other one gives respect," is also stretching out your hand. It is royal begging. Only when you become altruistic yogis in this will the waves of happiness of the golden world reach the world. The power of science has created very powerful material to destroy the whole world, so that in a short time, the whole task can be accomplished. The power of science is making such refined things. Similarly, you, who have the power of knowledge, should create such a powerful attitude and powerful atmosphere that in a short time the waves of happiness, the waves of the elevated future of the world, spread everywhere very quickly. Half the world is now half dead. They are sleeping on the death bed of fear. Give them the oxygen of the waves of happiness. Keep this golden thought for the Golden Jubilee constantly emerged. Do you understand what you have to do? You now have to make your speed faster. Whatever you have done so far was very good. Now, for the future, continue to do the best. Achcha.

Double foreigners have a lot of enthusiasm. It is now the chance for double foreigners. Many have arrived here. Do you understand? Now give everyone the toli of happiness. There is Dilkhush toli, so distribute plenty of that. Achcha.

The servers are also dancing in happiness. Tiredness finishes when you are dancing. So, you showed everyone the dance of service and the dance of happiness. What did you do? You showed your dance, did you not? Achcha.

To all the most elevated fortunate special souls, to those who make every second and every thought golden, to all the obedient children, to those who are always the children of the Bestower and fill the aprons of others, to the children who are full, to those who always become bestowers of fortune and bestowers of blessings and who enable everyone to attain liberation and liberation-in-life, to the children who are always overflowing, BapDada's love, remembrance, congratulations and namaste filled with golden flowers of golden love and golden happiness.

BapDada meeting groups:

Do you always remember the Father and the inheritance? Remembrance of the Father automatically reminds you of your inheritance, and if you remember your inheritance, you automatically remember the Father. Both the Father and the inheritance are together. You remember the Father for an inheritance. If you don't have the attainment of an inheritance, why would you remember the Father? So, remembrance of the Father and the inheritance always makes you overflowing. You are overflowing with treasures and are distant from pain and sorrow. There are both benefits. You become distant from sorrow and overflowing with treasures. No one except the Father can enable you to have such permanent attainment. This awareness will always make you full and content. The Father is the Ocean and always overflowing. No matter how much you try to dry up an ocean, an ocean will never end. An ocean is full. Similarly, you are also always full souls, are you not? If you become empty, you may have to stretch out your hand somewhere to receive something. However, souls who are overflowing always continue to swing in the swing of happiness and joy. So, have you become such elevated souls? You have to remain constantly full. Check to see to what extent you have used the treasures and powers you have received. Always continue to fly with the wings of courage and enthusiasm and continue to make others fly. If you have courage, but no zeal or enthusiasm, there cannot be success. If you have enthusiasm, but no courage, then too, there is no success. If you have both together, then that is the flying stage. Therefore, always continue to fly with the wings of courage and enthusiasm. Achcha.

Blessing: May you remain stable in the form of a point, keeping your mind and intellect safe from any negative influence and become a special soul.

When it is a particular season, you pay attention accordingly to remaining safe from the weather. Rain will come, so you pay the attention to keeping your umbrella and raincoat with you. If the weather is cold, you would keep warm clothes with you. So too, at the present time, Maya is performing the special task of creating negative feelings and intentions in your mind and intellect. This is why you especially have to adopt a means of safety. The easy method for this is to remain stable in the form of a point. Instead of applying exclamation marks or question marks, put a full-stop, that is, become a special soul.

Slogan: Those who say "Ji Hajoor" (Yes, my Lord) in their every thought, word and deed are obedient.
