

Avyakt Signals – February 2014

Transform the atmosphere by serving through the mind.

- 1) According to the time, you now have to finish all waste in a second and spread the influence of the best into the atmosphere. The atmosphere of best thoughts will bring the final time closer. Therefore, even if you have to speak of business matters, put those into their essence from the expansion, for only then will your mind become powerful and will the atmosphere then be transformed.
- 2) Increase the power of silence with the purity of your thoughts, words and deeds and only then will you be able to transform the attitude, vision and atmosphere of any place with the power of your mind. No matter how far away a soul may be physically from you, you can give that soul the experience of personally being in front of you.
- 3) Now is the time to bring about world transformation through your powerful mind. For this, practise putting a full stop to the thoughts of your mind in a second. Do not think about any situation too much and thereby make it big. “Why did this situation come? Why did this happen?” The paper came and so it will do what it has to do. Judge between waste and best in a second and finish that situation in a second.
- 4) Just as you are ever ready for any physical task, so also remain ever ready to imbibe whatever thought you have to in your mind. Do whatever you think of at that time. This is known as being ever-ready in your mind too. Become ever ready to transform sanskars, to fulfil the responsibility of spiritual relationships and connections and to finish or harmonise sanskars.
- 5) In order to serve through your mind, always have elevated and altruistic thoughts for everyone and also have the feeling of uplifting everyone. Have the elevated power of having mercy for those who defame you. Let there always be the feeling of being a bestower. Let there always be self-transformation. Through your own elevated deeds, inspire others to perform elevated deeds.
- 6) No matter what type of soul comes into contact with you, whether that soul is satoguni or tamoguni, always have pure and positive thoughts for everyone, that is, uplift even those who defame you. Do not have a vision of dislike towards any soul because you know that that soul is influenced by ignorance, that is, that child has no understanding. One cannot dislike the actions of a child who has no understanding; instead, there is a feeling of love and compassion for that child.
- 7) Each one of you has to have the thought: I have to spread the rays of peace and power into the world. I have to be an image of tapasya. Now is not the time to caution one another through words. Now, with pure feelings and good wishes in your mind, be co-operative with one another, move forward and inspire others to move forward.
- 8) The power of your mind will become your means of safety in the final moments. Only with the power of your mind will you be able to become an instrument to have a beautiful end for yourself. At that time, you will need to have power of the mind, that is, the power of elevated thoughts and a clear line with One. For unlimited service and for safety of the self, accumulate the power of the mind and the power of fearlessness.
- 9) According to the time, now perform the task of giving sakaash, giving vibrations and of creating an atmosphere everywhere through the mind. There is now a need for this service because very delicate times are to come.

- 10) If any soul with particular sanskars or nature becomes an instrument to test you in your efforts, let there always be the thought and feeling of benefit for that soul. From your forehead, that is, from the awareness in your intellect and from your vision, let there be nothing visible except your soul-conscious form. Let nothing else be visible. Only then will you be able to serve through your mind.
- 11) Just as BapDada feels mercy, so you children also have to become master merciful and with the attitude of your mind and through the atmosphere, give souls the powers you have received from the Father. Since you have to accomplish service of the whole world in a short time, and everything including the elements have to be purified, then do service at an intense speed.
- 12) In order to serve many souls through your elevated feelings, good wishes, elevated attitude and elevated vibrations at a fast speed from any place through your mind and to transform the atmosphere, become a lighthouse and a might house. There is no question of having physical facilities, a chance or the time in this. There is just the need to be full of light and might.
- 13) In order for you to serve through your mind, your mind and intellect have to be free from thinking waste thoughts. Let there be the easy form of the mantra of manmanabhav. Elevated souls who have powerful thoughts, good wishes and pure feelings can give the donation of powers through their minds.
- 14) At every moment, you, yourself, and others should automatically experience having the pure vibrations of good wishes and pure feelings for every soul. At every moment, let there always be blessings emerging from your mind for all souls. Just as you have become experienced in remaining busy in serving through words so let your mind always remain busy in this service. When you are not given any service to do, you experience yourself to be empty. Let service through the mind continue to take place automatically in this way just as service is done through words.
- 15) When you have the natural practice of giving good wishes and auspicious blessings through your mind, your mind will remain busy and it will automatically step away from any upheaval that takes place within it. You will then never become disheartened with your efforts as you sometimes do now. There will be magic.
- 16) Now, increase the quality of your mind and quality souls will then come close to you. There will be double service through this – of the self and of others. You will not have to do anything separately for others. The busier you keep yourself in serving through the mind, the more easily you will become a conqueror of Maya. Do not become one who is influenced by the self, but do the service of transforming others through your good wishes and pure feelings.
