

AVYAKT SIGNALS - SEPTEMBER 2014

Become emperors of the land free from sorrow

- 1) The greatest emperor of all is a carefree emperor and the greatest kingdom is the kingdom of no sorrow. A kingdom in this world is nothing in front of the kingdom of no sorrow. A right to the kingdom of no sorrow is very elevated and joy giving; it is without sorrow. Constantly maintain the spiritual intoxication that you are emperors of the land without sorrow and do not come down.
- 2) An emperor of the land without sorrow means to be one who is a master of all the treasures of happiness. The treasures of happiness are a birthright of Brahmins, and it is because of this right that, there is regard today for the name and form of elevated souls. Emperors of the land without sorrow are such that, just by taking their name, any temporary sorrow of many souls is removed, and, on seeing those images whose character is praised, souls who have been experiencing sorrow then experience happiness. You are such emperors in the living form of the land without sorrow.
- 3) BapDada has given you the title, "Carefree emperors, emperors of the land without sorrow". Whenever any situation arises, just go to the land without sorrow. You have invoked the new world to come and the old world to go, so how will it go? There will definitely be some upheaval, for only then will it go. Therefore, no matter what happens, you definitely have to become carefree.

- 4) Where there is Godly, spiritual intoxication, there cannot be any worries and you become carefree emperors, emperors of the land without sorrow. So, all of you are the carefree emperors who are filled with the Godly treasures of perfection. You don't have any worries about what is going to happen or how it will happen. Those who remain stable in the trikaldarshi stage know that whatever is happening is good and that whatever is going to happen will be even better.
- 5) It is at this time that you have the knowledge of sorrow and no sorrow, and, while having this, you remain constantly in that stage and this is why you are said to be emperors of the land without sorrow. You may be beggars, but, while being beggars, you are the emperors of the land without sorrow. Emperors means kings who automatically have the power to rule a kingdom. However, if that automatic power is not used in the right way and you become trapped in some wrong task somewhere or another, you then lose the power of the kingdom and also the royal status.
- 6) At this time you children are emperors of the land without sorrow and you have the attainment of all powers. However, if you are influenced by anyone's company or are controlled by any of your sense organs, you lose your power and you also automatically lose the happiness and attainment that you have of being in the land without sorrow. Therefore, never forget this awareness: I am an embodiment of the eight powers, an emperor of the land without sorrow.
- 7) Children who know the method (Vidhi) and the laws (Vidhan) become embodiments of success in their every thought and deed. To be an embodiment of success means to be an emperor of the land without sorrow. Before you claim your fortune of the future kingdom, you are emperors of the land without sorrow at the present time. Let there be no waves of sorrow even in your thoughts because you have come away from the land of sorrow and are now standing at the confluence age.

- 8) Never become engaged in breaking the rocks of problems with the hammer of waste thoughts. Now stop labouring in that way and become emperors. Maintain this awareness: I am an emperor of the land without sorrow. Then, even the word "problem" will not exist nor will your time be wasted in repeatedly finding a solution. Those old sanskars will become your servants; they will not attack you. So, become an emperor seated on your throne, wear your crown and have the tilak applied.

- 9) Each child of BapDada is a master. You are the masters of all three lands: the confluence-aged land without sorrow, the incorporeal world that is without sorrow and heaven that is without sorrow. Every thought of such masters becomes practical. Those who have such lines of fortune will be emperors of the land without sorrow. They will always speak elevated versions through their lips. Elevated versions are only a few. So, do not waste either type of energy – energy of thoughts or words.

- 10) Emperors of the land without sorrow constantly experience themselves to be on the bed of happiness, in the world of happiness. There is no name or trace of sorrow in the world and life of Brahmins because nothing is lacking in the treasure-store of Brahmins. When you have attained everything – prosperity, relations etc, your world is without sorrow. You are constantly the masters and children of the world of happiness, that is, you are emperors.

- 11) Wherever Brahmin souls are, even in an atmosphere of sorrow, they are like a lotus, free from sorrow, emperors of the land without sorrow. Waves of sorrow such as illness of the body, wasteful upheaval in the mind, any lack of attainment of perishable wealth, sorrow due to the weak nature and sanskars of the self or others, sorrow on the basis of the atmosphere or vibrations, sorrow on the basis of relationships and connections: no wave of sorrow can create any impact on you.

- 12) With the medicine of the imperishable blessings through the murli of Murlidhar, your bodies become healthy and your minds also become healthy. You become intoxicated with this intoxication and you become carefree emperors. You become emperors of the land without sorrow. You become masters of yourselves. To the extent that you listen to the murli in the right way, so you accordingly become embodiments of success.
- 13) Whenever any service upsets you, then think: That service is not service. If it makes you fluctuate or it causes upheaval, then that service is not service. Service makes you fly. Service makes you into emperors of the land without sorrow. It makes you into carefree emperors, emperors of the land without sorrow, after whom success comes by itself. You are souls who are embodiments of happiness who belong to the Bestower of Happiness. Constantly maintain the awareness that you are the children of the Ocean of Happiness.
- 14) Just as little children automatically go to their mother; no matter how much you try to separate them, they will still go to their mother, so, the mother of happiness and peace is purity. Where there is purity, happiness, peace and joy come automatically. This Brahmin family is without sorrow, that is, it is a world of happiness. So, you have become emperors of the world of happiness, of the land without sorrow. You are: His Holiness. You have the sign of purity, crowns of light, and you are seated on BapDada's heart-throne. So remain constantly seated on the throne and wear your crown and tilak.
