

For February 14, 2015

The Pure Desire of the Heart Is Always Fulfilled

Dadi, like Baba fulfills the pure desires of the heart. When I was in Oxford, I often used to see Dadi through the windows taking one of her regular walks with the Senior sisters. They would walk hand in hand and it was so lovely to see them. I thought how beautiful it would be if I too could one day walk with Dadi hand in hand

Though it seemed impossible, the day came. News reached me that Dadi would be arriving at the airport in Vienna (which is near Hungary where I live). I picked Dadi up at the airport. When I saw her, without saying anything, she took my hand and we walked through the airport together. I can't explain the feeling. We walked so silently. It was as if I wasn't on the earth anymore. I will never forget those few moments of timeless time.

Words of Wisdom

"What Baba has said in His elevated versions is happening and you are seeing that. It's fortune to see and experience that. We don't need to do anything else. He is doing everything; He is inspiring everything. We just carry on experiencing that, whilst looking at Karavanhar, the One who is making us do everything, by constantly looking at Him, our lives have become worthwhile. In fact, it's not so much the fact that my life is now successful but that it is no longer in my hands; it's in Baba's hands. We are being sustained in Baba's lap. Baba has made us His companions. It is such a beautiful pilgrimage! The only sound that emerges is that everyone's life should be like this."

“I should have such a desire to meet and be with God that that feeling of desire to be with God is in my every breath. This feeling of wanting to meet and be with God will bring rewards when you sit in meditation. Ask God: Do you love me? Actually, I cannot live without Him and He cannot live without me. Baba wants you as His companion! It is through belonging to God and making Him belong to us that we learned to really smile. Now listen to knowledge and inculcate it in such a way that sorrow is dispelled from every inner corner where it has been hiding until now. ”

Drishti Point

As I walk with the Beautiful One and the Friend of the Heart, I radiate the warmth of this connection to each soul I meet.

Karma Yoga Exercise

Take Baba with you through your day. Place your hand of light in his hand of light and hold the awareness that you are walking with the most Beautiful One, the Friend of the Heart and the Eternal Companion.