You have been connected with Brahma Kumaris since the age of 20. In academic education, you always got scholarships. Completion of Engineering degree in the year 1961, Corporeal BapDada's blissful words enabled you to get surrendered. You played very crucial role in the primary years of Godly service. You became instrumental in bringing your entire family members i.e. parents, brothers and sisters in this Godly knowledge. You established first picture-gallery in Delhi through which the museum of the centres, exhibitions, fairs could be prepared throughout India. Through BapDada's guidance you added new pictures for Godly service. Thereafter, along with senior Bro. BK Jagdishji, you gave your untiring cooperation in the service of Godly literature also. In the year 1980, you were assigned with the editorial responsibility of Gyanamrit and The World Renewal. In the year 1992, loving Baba called you to the unlimited home of Shantivan and made you instrumental in the service of India as well as abroad. On the establishment of Media Wing, you were appointed as its National Coordinator.

You are very easy natured, co-opeative, honest towards Yagya, obedient to elders and an untiring Godly Servant.
