Is my face revealing Baba's remembrance?

Om Shanti, Om Shanti, Om Shanti... We are Baba's old children. The song was saying that Baba's remembrance fills us with power. I am seeing all of your faces revealing the power and strength of Baba's remembrance. Baba's remembrance makes us cheerful. See, there are so many sisters here... brothers are less...

I am remembering the old slogan 'care, share and inspire'. So, what should I do? (Jayanti Bhen said, "inspire everyone"). First comes 'care'. Care and be cheerful.

Q. What does it mean to have faith in the family?

See the family. See this wonderful family that we have. I am seeing how all of you are so good. My hand of blessings is raised... There are five fingers and all are different. All of you sitting here are wonderful. Each has his/her own speciality. For us there is only one Baba. We point to the One up above... We don't need to think about much more than that actually; who am I and who do I belong to?

Do you feel that you have faith in yourself? If so, raise your hand. Baba has raised us to His eyes. We are sitting there in His eyes. Who is in our eyes? Shiv Baba. Who is in the heart, comes into the vision and remains in the mind. Baba is the Comforter of Hearts and He understands our hearts. So keep the Comforter of Hearts in your heart. He tells us to always be happy, to give happiness to others and to remain in remembrance. In fact knowledge means to stay in the awareness of who I am and the remembrance of the One I belong to.

There are five virtues: purity and truth – the two most important. Then patience. If there is a lack of patience then purity and truth cannot be stable in me. Then comes humility and sweetness. Oh soul, speak sweet words. Do not speak in haste or with impatience.

Q. How did Dadi reach the karmateet stage?

I have paid attention. Not tension but attention. I am a soul and mine is the Paramatma. I have paid attention that no karmic account should pull me. Thus I have become free whilst alive. Whilst in this body, whilst in this world we need to be loving and detached. We have to become the conquerors of attachment and the embodiments of remembrance. We have to be natural with everyone. I am a being of light. I am a living light. Mine is the Supreme Soul – the One who is Might. Then everything becomes right.

Dadi then gave toli to everyone present in the Conference Hall, Diamond House...

Om Shanti
